Understanding the value of arranging one's cemetery and funeral services in advance is not as difficult as it seems. In fact, pre-arranging is the most loving, caring and considerate act someone can do because it spares their loved ones the burden and responsibility of making emotional and financial decisions at their most difficult time.

The first light of Easter dawn had begun to creep over the horizon. The steadfast women from Friday's gory events are returning again to the body of their Lord. "Who will roll back the stone for us from the entrance to the tomb?" How quickly we return to mundane concerns and how thoroughly God wants to surprise us! Imagine the utter shock upon seeing the stone rolled away, the tomb empty, and a stranger clothed in light proclaiming the impossible. "You seek Jesus of Nazareth, the crucified. He has been raised; he is not here." He is risen indeed and the world will never be the same.

We know from other Gospel passages that Mary Magdalene made haste to the disciples to proclaim the Good News. We know that Peter and John rushed to the tomb to see for themselves. We know that the wonder and awe of the Resurrection permeated the lives of the apostles until their own dying day.

Can we comprehend the utterly world-changing nature of this surprise? The historical reanimation of a dead man is of no real value to us. But we know that Easter Sunday is so much more. By the Resurrection of Jesus, life has triumphed over death for us all. The gates of heaven are opened and the treasury of graces is poured out upon the here and now. This Resurrection Day, let us draw near, amazed yet unafraid, to the risen Christ. Let us recall the words of Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI, "Jesus is not a character from the past. He lives, and he walks before us as one who is alive, he calls us to follow him, the living one, and in this way to discover for ourselves the path of life" (Easter Vigil, April 15, 2006).

Wedding Anniversaries

Mass will be on Sunday, May 13 at 2 p.m. at St. Matthew Parish, Surrey. Reception to follow in the parish gym with exhibitors present in the Jubilee Hall. Register your milestone anniversary here: <http://rcav.org/marriage-anniversary/>. All are welcome to witness and celebrate the milestone anniversaries of others this Mother's Day!

- Easter! The biggest celebration of the year! Alleluia, Alleluia! Christ is Risen!
- This day is so full of memories. As a child back in the Netherlands, we were told to listen if we could hear the church bells. They had been silent all during Lent, but now they sang loud and clear. And .. they scattered colourful Easter eggs as the bells tolled their musical sounds. Oh, how wonderful to go and search between the spring flowers and new grass.
- I hope you all have some beautiful memories about Easter and that you are creating new ones for your families. Have a blessed Easter. Alleluia, Alleluia.

Divine Mercy Sunday is April 8 this year. Our Church has been given two Mercy Popes on that day: Pope John XXIII and Pope John Paul II. Pope Francis announced a Jubilee Year of Mercy starting December 8, 2015. In preparation for the graces available for us all, St. Faustina has shared a Novena given to her by Jesus. A copy of this Novena is available after Masses this weekend and during the week. Please begin the Novena on Good Friday. St. Matthew's Parish will celebrate the Feast of Divine Mercy following the 7:30 PM Mass on Sunday, April 8.

Fr. Tran's 25th Anniversary of Ordination:

Please plan to attend the celebration dinner to be held Saturday, May 19, after the 5:30 PM Mass in St. Matthew's Elementary School Gym. Tickets and further information will be available soon. Please watch the bulletin for details. There will be an opportunity for presentations by parish groups.

Sunday Coffee: HELP is needed with serving coffee after the 10:30 AM Mass on Sundays. If you can help, call Ron Fournier at 604-589-2932 or see him after the Mass any Sunday.

LIVE THE LITURGY

Christ is risen indeed! We have arrived at the penultimate feast on the Church's calendar, the cause of our joy and our hope. Life has defeated death. Sorrow and suffering do not have the last say. In the resurrection of Jesus we see many reasons to rejoice. Not only has Jesus conquered the specter of visible death, but He restores to us graced life. On Holy Saturday, Jesus descended to the dead and delivered the just souls into heavenly paradise. What are our own Saturday tombs? Jesus has the power to open them all. That is our invitation, this day most of all. May resurrection joy fill your heart, your family, your workplace, and your community. Happy Easter!

Dear Parishioners,

Alleluia! Our Lord Jesus Christ has truly risen, let us rejoice and be glad! In the joyful spirit of Easter, on behalf of Fr. Nixon and the whole parish of St. Matthew's, I would like to wish everyone and your family a very blessed Easter Season filled with fullness of joy, peace and grace from the Risen Lord.

By dying on the cross, Jesus has destroyed sin and death; and by rising from the dead, He has restored life! Eternal life is once again made possible for all His children who now can truly live as children of light, totally being transformed to be more and more like Jesus every day.

Let us allow the experience of the Paschal Mystery of Christ this year to renew ourselves to become new people, always filled with the spirit of joy and peace to bring the Good News to everyone around us! Let us always remember too that the Cross is the sign of our faith and bear witness to it by our actions every day. Let us live out our faith in such a committed way that others will recognize the Risen Lord in each one of us! HAPPY EASTER!

God bless,
Fr. Tien Tran, Pastor
