SO THAT YOU MAY BELIEVE

It is not often that the author of one of the books of the Bible comes right out and tells us directly why he is writing what he is writing. In this Sunday's Gospel reading, taken from the conclusion of John's Gospel, the author tells us that he has chosen to record these events so "that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that through this belief you may have life in his name" (20:31).

The letter of John echoes this idea by saying that "[e]veryone who believes that Jesus is the Christ is begotten by God" (5:1)—what we might refer to as being "born again." Our reading from the Acts of the Apostles for this Second Sunday of Easter shows us exactly what it looks like when believers are born again through faith. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

Announcements

THANK YOU! We are grateful to all the people who made our Easter celebrations so joyful and meaningful:

To the altar servers who took time to rehearse for the different liturgies;

To the lectors who shared God's word clearly and passionately;

To the choirs whose long hours of practice paid off in truly beautiful celebrations of Christ's death and resurrection;

To the ushers who maintained calm and respect during crowded liturgies;

To those who worked behind the scenes, lighting fires, ringing bells, arranging flowers, cleaning, and counting collections;

Thank you to all of you for your service and sacrifice. May God reward you with greater faith and true peace.

LIVING STATIONS OF THE CROSS VIDEO Those who missed seeing the Living Stations of the Cross that was presented by the youth of our parish will be able to view it in YouTube soon. Further details will be announced when the video is posed. The free will offering for Covenant House in Vancouver, collected during the event, amounted to $1,920.15. Thanks so much for your generosity.
