Understanding the value of arranging one's cemetery and funeral services in advance is not as difficult as it seems. In fact, pre-arranging is the most loving, caring and considerate act someone can do because it spares their loved ones the burden and responsibility of making emotional and financial decisions at their most difficult time.

Today's Gospel occurs in the middle of Jesus' ministry. At first, Jesus' words seem to be about the value of self-sacrifice in a leader. "I am the Good Shepherd ... I will lay down my life for the sheep." The apostles likely would have accepted these words easily enough. But then comes something more strange. "I lay down my life in order to take it up again

... I have power to lay it down and power to take it up again." Only later, when Jesus opened the Scriptures to them after His resurrection, would the apostles understand His words. Only then would they understand why such an act was necessary for the salvation of the world.

Even now, we may struggle with the necessity of Holy Week. How often do we hear complaints against the silence of God, as if He is the "hired man" who "runs away" from suffering? Jesus' life, death, and resurrection is our redemption in fact. God himself bears the full weight of sin's consequences. The Paschal Mystery is also a sign that happens in full view of the human experience. We have seen Jesus lay down His life. We have seen Him accompany others. "I know mine and mine know me." We have seen Him reach those outside the traditional flock, "sheep not of this fold." Jesus is the Good Shepherd, not only in Scripture but in our daily lives.

While we can't experience physically walking alongside Him like the apostles did, the grace of our redemption continues through the Church. We are shepherded by the sacraments, by faith formation, by good mentors. At the same time, we are not only the sheep. In imitating Jesus, we, too, are invited to lay down our lives for others. We can be the hands, feet, and shepherd's crook of Christ.

- We are still celebrating Easter, getting closer to Pentecost. And do we ever need the Holy Spirit. He knows that I count on Him to ensure the continuation of the Catholic Women's League in our parish. We need a new president and a whole new council to help her. Of course, some of the existing executive will still be there to mentor and guide. But, ladies, search your hearts and see if you have neglected to listen to the call of the Holy Spirit. We will welcome you with loving arms.
- Next week we are attending the convention. It is so good to see many of you will be there with me. Come with enthusiasm and enjoy faith, fun and fulfillment. Our Lady of Good Counsel will surely be there with you. Ria Ling

LIVE THE LITURGY

There is something comforting about knowing that we are in someone's care. Children can feel this most easily when surrounded by the embrace of a mother or father. All is well. Jesus is the Good Shepherd. We don't have to figure out all of the complexities of life. All we need to do is allow Jesus to be the true shepherd of our lives: to point us in the right direction, lead us to the best pasture, and keep us safe from harm. So many things in the world can hurt us, and we can quickly find that we are on the road to despair. Keeping focused on Jesus, remaining close to Him allows us to develop the gifts and talents God has given us and discover the key to true happiness. Jesus welcomes me with all of my doubts and fears, limitations and sins.

We invite you to reflect and pray the Glorious Mysteries of the Rosary, starting April 22 to 28. Visit rcav.org/pray-for-vocations to view these special meditations on the Glorious Mysteries of the Rosary with a vocations theme.
