SURREY, B.C. V3S2E7

Understanding the value of arranging one's cemetery and funeral services in advance is not as difficult as it seems. In fact, pre-arranging is the most loving, caring and considerate act someone can do because it spares their loved ones the burden and responsibility of making emotional and financial decisions at their most difficult time.

MARRIAGE:

FUNERALS:

Please call the parish office before making arrangements.

"I have called you friends." Authentic friendship can seem hard to come by these days, especially in our transient society. We move away from family, change jobs, switch parishes, and end up in entirely new places with entirely new people. When we look for new friends, we all have different qualities we're looking for. While we may think of certain standards of behaviour necessary to be a "good" friend, we would hardly refer to them as rules or "commandments."

In fact, if a friendship or romantic relationship—new or old—becomes characterized by imposed obligations, we would rightly be suspicious. Friendships, we understand, ought to be characterized by freedom. We love the person, even sacrifice for them at times because, within ourselves, we want to maintain the friendship. So why does Jesus use the language of command as He calls the Apostles His friends? "You are my friends if you do what I command you."

Jesus is radically transforming the concept of commandment. In the Jewish heritage of the Apostles, they would hear the word "command" and immediately think of the strict Levitical law and distance from God. In introducing the language of friendship, Jesus ties "commandment" to inner freedom of heart. The disciples have this freedom precisely because they know "what [the] Master is doing." Jesus has invited His followers into intimate friendship all along. He shares openly with them. He has patience with their flaws. He is not scandalized by their failures. He celebrates their successes. We, too, have been called by love and invited into a relationship with Jesus. It is you and I that Jesus chooses and appoints. He does so personally, not from a distant mountain shrouded in clouds. This "new commandment" to "love one another" is received around the shared table in the breaking of the bread.

LIVE THE LITURGY

"Whoever is without love does not know God, for God is love." So many people hunger for love. All of us desire to be intimately connected with others, God, and our world. Many things can work against this and cause us to feel alienated and even profoundly sad. Pope Francis tells us that our "infinite sadness can only be cured by an infinite love." We have been touched by God's love. We are called to bring that love to others so that their sadness and wounds can be healed. We must do this even for those we do not particularly like or who have hurt us. We cannot let anything stand in the way of love.

May, the month of Mary

*Bring flow'rs of the fairest,
Bring flow'rs of the rarest,
From garden and woodland
And hillside and vale;
Our full hearts are swelling,
Our glad voices telling,
The praise of the loveliest
Rose of the vale.*

*O Mary! We crown thee with blossoms today,
Queen of the Angels, Queen of the May.
O Mary! We crown thee with blossoms today,
Queen of the Angels, Queen of the May.*

CWL Corner

This month is a special time for all Catholic Women's League members. Our focus is on Mary, the Mother of God, patroness of our league. All over the world her statue or picture will be in the midst of abundant flowers. The glow of candles, the perfume of lilacs, freesias and roses draws us near. Children and adults alike will stop to say a special prayer as we honour her. Lift your voice in a song to Mother Mary and ask her to always stay by your side.

20th Annual Focus on Life Gala Dinner: Hope for Canada

Can you support the dinner by joining a table for St. Matthew's Parish—Monday, May 28, 2018, at Sheraton Vancouver Wall Centre, 1088 Burrard Street, Vancouver. Doors open at 5:30 PM. Cost $85 per ticket, $800 per table. Please call the parish office 604-589-2448 as soon as you can so we can reserve a table.

To all parishioners: The CWL invites you to join us in prayer for palliative care this Wednesday, May 9, 2018. We come together from 8 AM to the closing at 3:30 PM. CWL members will lead you in prayer; however, there will also be lots of opportunities for private prayers. This is the third year that all of the Canadian councils are asking that everyone will be able to have palliative care available for them. Even 15 minutes of your time will tell the Lord that you are concerned.

STEWARDSHIP: "This is my commandment: love one another as I love you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends." - John 15:12-13. Do you love Jesus? Does your giving seem mechanical out of obligation or do you share freely out of love?
