Mother's Day

Pastor's Corner

Dear Parishioners,

The annual time for the priests of the diocese to make their retreat begins tomorrow with the first group, of which Fr. Francesco is a part of. It takes place at the Abbey in Mission and we pray for a grace filled time for all in attendance. I'll be going the following week.

We had a little better than half of our Project Advance envelopes picked up last weekend, so thank you to all who helped us save on the postage expense. Now we need to have your pledge brought to the parish, and the easiest way may be to put it in the Sunday basket or drop it by the office. For people new to the parish you may find a blank envelope available for your use in the entrance of the churches.

Next Sunday at the 11am Mass we will celebrate the 50th Anniversary of Ordination of our very own retired priest Fr. Nick Boomars. Fr. Nick lives in our parish and is so generous with his availability to help us with daily Masses and special occasions. We are blessed to have him as part of our team and we'll pray with him and for him next Sunday. There'll be cake too!

Happy Mother's Day and have a blessed week,

Fr. Dion

Stewardship Reflection

"Faith is strengthened when it is given to others!" (Saint John Paul II). The very first Christians were an enthusiastic group of followers. Anyone who has encountered the Risen Lord will naturally feel the need to joyfully share the experience. In what ways are you enthusiastically sharing your joy in knowing Jesus with others? One day the Lord will require an accounting of how each of us have stewarded his gifts to us, especially the gift of our faith. We pray that on that day we will be found to have been trustworthy stewards.

2ND READING: Eph 1: 17-23

GOSPEL: Mark 16: 15-20

SOLEMNITY OF THE ASCENSION OF OUR LORD HOMILY OF JOHN PAUL II ~ 24 May 1979

The richness of the mystery of Christ's Ascension is spelled out in two statements: Jesus gave instructions, and then Jesus took his place.

In the providence of God – in the eternal design of the Father – the hour had come for Christ to go away. He would leave his Apostles behind, with his Mother Mary, but only after he had given them his instructions. The Apostles now had a mission to perform according to the instructions that Jesus left, and these instructions were in turn the faithful expression of the Father's will.

The instructions indicated, above all, that the Apostles were to wait for the Holy Spirit, who was the gift of the Father. From the beginning, it had to be crystal-clear that the source of the Apostles' strength is the Holy Spirit. It is the Holy Spirit who guides the Church in the way of truth; the Gospel is to spread through the power of God, and not by means of human wisdom or strength.

The Apostles, moreover, were instructed to teach – to proclaim the Good News to the whole world. And they were to baptize in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Like Jesus, they were to speak explicitly about the Kingdom of God and about salvation. The Apostles were to give witness to Christ to the ends of the earth. The early Church clearly understood these instructions and the missionary era began. And everybody knew that this missionary era could never end until the same Jesus, who went up to heaven, would come back again.

The words of Jesus became a treasure for the Church to guard and to proclaim, to meditate on and to live. And at the same time, the Holy Spirit implanted in the Church an apostolic charism, in order to keep this revelation intact. Through his words Jesus was to live on in his Church: I am with you always.

And so the whole ecclesial community became conscious of the need for fidelity to the instructions of Jesus, to the deposit of faith... the first priority for seminaries today is the teaching of God's word in all its purity and integrity, with all its exigencies and in all its power. The word of God – and the word of God alone – is the basis for all ministry, for all pastoral activity, for all priestly action.

And the second reflection on the meaning of the Ascension is found in this phrase: Jesus took his place. After having undergone the humiliation of his passion and death, Jesus took his place at the right-hand of God; he took his place with his eternal Father...

For all eternity Christ takes his place as the firstborn among many brethren: our nature is with God in Christ. And as man, the Lord Jesus lives for ever to intercede for us with Father. At the same time, from his throne of glory, Jesus sends out to the whole Church a message of hope and a call to holiness.

Because of Christ's merits, because of his intercession with the Father, not by any of our own striving or merits, we are able to attain justice and holiness of life, in him.

The Church may indeed experience difficulties, the Gospel may suffer setbacks, but because Jesus is at the right-hand of the Father the Church will never know defeat. Christ's victory is ours. The power of the glorified Christ, the beloved Son of the eternal Father, is superabundant, to sustain each of us and all of us in the fidelity of our dedication to God's Kingdom and in the generosity of our celibacy. The efficacy of Christ's Ascension touches all us in the concrete reality of our daily lives.

Dear sons, be imbued with the hope that is so much a part of the mystery of the Ascension of Jesus. Be deeply conscious of Christ's victory and triumph over sin and death. Realize that the strength of Christ is greater than our weakness, greater than the weakness of the whole world. Try to understand and share the joy that Mary experienced in knowing that her Son had taken his place with his Father, whom he loved infinitely. And renew your faith today in the promise of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has gone to prepare a place for us, so that he can come back again and take us to himself.

This is the mystery of the Ascension of our Head. Let us always remember: Jesus gave instructions, and then Jesus took his place. Amen!

Canada Summer Jobs 2018 Attestation and
Our Response

As you may know, the Liberal government recently changed the rules of the Canada Summer Jobs program forcing employers applying for funding to sign an attestation saying that they support abortion.
Because of this, church groups across the country who are refusing to sign
are losing funding for their summer job programs. This weekend, volunteers from the national pro-life
organization called RightNow www.itstartsrightnow.ca are in our churches collecting signatures to send a message to the government to demand reversal of this unjust decision.

Is there someone at work, or in your family, who you feel called to befriend or further involve in your life? Whether friendships develop on the bus, by the water cooler or at the dinner table, nurturing a real relationship takes time. As these daily conversations take place, how can we tell when someone is just curious to learn more about Jesus and why we love him, even before getting invited to get to know him better?

2018 Man's Destiny MEN'S CONFERENCE

Life from "I'm Fine" to Filled with Hope... It seems many of us have been too easily satisfied with a life that is typically just fine. Think about it, how do we usually respond when people ask us how we are doing? ... "oh, I'm fine, how about you?" and the response returns, "yeah, I'm fine
too"

God has said He has plans for us that offer much more. "...For surely I know the plans I have for you, says the Lord, plans for your welfare and not for harm, to give you a future with hope..." Jer29:11.

Doesn't this sound a lot better than fine?

Come to Man's Destiny 2018
and discover along with more than 100 other men how to claim what has been promised to all of us and start more successfully living life in an abundance of peace, joy and hope.

Featured speakers:
Jake Khym from Life Restoration,
Fr. Francesco, and James Borkowski, the Archbishop's Delegate for Administration for the Archdiocese of Vancouver.
