Understanding the value of arranging one's cemetery and funeral services in advance is not as difficult as it seems. In fact, pre-arranging is the most loving, caring and considerate act someone can do because it spares their loved ones the burden and responsibility of making emotional and financial decisions at their most difficult time.

Happy Trinity Sunday! In today's Gospel, we hear Jesus declare together all three Persons of the Trinity. "Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit."

When we speak of the Trinity, two different theological words are sometimes used: immanent and economic. The immanent Trinity is the life of the three Persons within themselves, the inner harmonious relationship between Father, Son, and Spirit. We see this in the Gospels when Jesus speaks of His Father and promises to send the Holy Spirit. The term "economic" has its roots in the Greek word oikonomia, roughly meaning "household management." The economic Trinity is our three-Personed God's relationship with creation; it is creation and redemption and ongoing relationship with us.

Made in the image and likeness of God, we are called to imitate God's immanence by giving and receiving love with one another in community. However, this is not limited only to those close to us, though that's where love often starts. We also imitate the economy of God when we go out, when we extend our love and care in a life-giving way.

Every believer is sent on a mission. Every believer is invited to follow Jesus and the apostles "to the nations," to the margins, to the people who require a little extra reach. This could be a distant relative, the residents of your local homeless shelter, or even the forgotten neighbour next door. When we love well, we create something beautiful—a relationship, a holy moment, a foretaste of heaven. This Trinity Sunday, take some time to examine the relationships in your life. How well do you love those nearest to you? How well do you reach out to those farther away?

LIVE THE LITURGY

The love relationship that exists among the Persons of the Holy Trinity is both intense and intimate. As beautiful as this teaching is, it demonstrates how human language really pales in trying to capture the essence of God. The Father brings us to the creative, powerful, yet gently meticulous part of God who has brought mountains and hills into being, as well as each of His children. The Son demonstrates the unconditional love of God filled with endless mercy and compassion. This love really understands the journey of the marginalized and the poor. The Holy Spirit is the breath of God who teaches wisdom and brings understanding, who governs the seasons and discerns the thoughts of human hearts. We worship a God who is beyond and also intimately bonded to all that He has made.

Hymn to the Sacred Heart

*O Sacred Hart that bleeds for me,
Pierce every heart with love for Thee.*

*Refresh our thirst from high above
With nectar sweet and heavenly.*

*The host of love divine art Thou,
Salvation for all mortals here,
The way of grace lies open now
For all redemption is brought near.*

*And in God's gentle heart confide,
He loves each one with love so dear,
It burns like flames spread far and wide.*

- As I write this message, I think back on the wonderful celebration we had for Fr. Tran last Saturday. We truly were a family and we can thank our Lord for His graces. It was good to hear and see the affection Fr. Tran's brother priests expressed.
- On Tuesday night, we will come together with the knights, our members, and the parish at large to be informed on the work of the Domestic Abuse Society and to help us better understand it. You saw and hopefully read the insert in last week's bulletin. I hope to see many of you in the Jubilee Hall right after the evening Mass. Ria Ling
