DAILY MASS SCHEDULE

 Saturdays & Public Holidays, 9:00 AM.

CONFESSIONS

Mon - Fri: before 8 AM Mass;
 Sat: 9:30 AM & 4:15 - 4:45 PM.

Jesus tells His disciples, "Eat my body, drink my blood". He also points to what He is waiting for: "I will never again drink from the fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new in the Kingdom of God." Therefore, this Eucharistic meal is not only a meal that we celebrate today, but a meal that points to the establishment of God's Kingdom.

We believe that when we receive the bread and wine, we receive the real presence of Christ, body and blood, soul and divinity. This is the wonderful gift and mystery in the Mass.

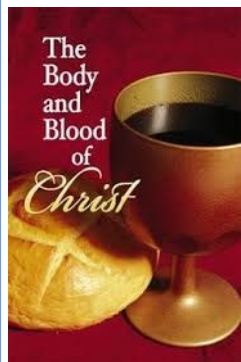

It is obvious how much our world still needs God's Kingdom to be established. For we live in a world that is characterized by hatred, injustice, violence, sickness, greed and death. These realities in our midst tells us that all that God has promised us has not yet come to pass, that the Kingdom is not yet here.

The power of the Eucharist and the real presence of Christ, give us hope that what we are waiting for is not an illusion, that God's promises are trustworthy. This is very important, because looking at what is wrong with our world and with ourselves, it is easy to lose hope. So, the real presence of Christ in the Eucharist is our assurance that God will, in fact, establish the Kingdom.

Therefore, the Eucharist is not simply about the food we have today. It's about the hunger which we trust will be satisfied in the future.

As we receive the Holy Eucharist, we must remember that we are hungry for a world, in which the weak are not oppressed and the poor are not abandoned; for a world in which every human being is treated with dignity and where those who have power do not abuse it. We must remember that we are waiting for the ability to forgive, to speak the truth, and to overcome our addictions.

As we raise the cup to our lips and drink the Precious Blood of Christ, we must remember what we have been promised that change is possible, that true love can be found, that we can become more generous, more patient, and more joyful. Are these high hopes? Yes, but these are hopes that flow from what we already have. Because Christ is Risen and Christ is Present in the Eucharist, we can be a people who dare to pray, "Thy Kingdom come," and believe that it will!

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

“Then He took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them and they all drank from it.” Mark 14:23

Jesus, the perfect steward, gave thanks, just before He gave Himself to us completely for our salvation.

He offers us the chance to drink from His cup.

In the Eucharist, we meet Christ personally and if we listen to Him, we know that drinking from His cup means our own sacrifice – giving up some of our time, talent, and treasure to do His work on earth.

The job entails evening work plus weekends; this is a part-time position requiring light and heavy cleaning as well as set-up and clean-up for parish activities.
