

10th Sunday in Ordinary Time June 10, 2018

Volume 38, Issue 23

Faith and Hope in a World of Demons

Today's readings are about faith and hope, virtues that are much needed in a world where people suffer the 'demons' of poverty, racial inequality, fear of strangers, or fear of anyone who is different from what is accepted as 'normal.' When our safety and security are threatened, we try to hold on desperately to what we have and what we know.

Jesus gave freedom to those oppressed by demons because he was rooted in the love of God. The Pharisees, being rooted in the letter of the law, were not able to bring freedom to those who were suffering. They sought safety in the law: it was familiar and tried. Jesus stepped outside those boundaries and turned to the indulgent love of God to free the suffering.

We, like the Pharisees, are sometimes trapped by our fears and, not being rooted in the love of God, cannot think and act as Jesus did. In order to ask critical questions about why injustice exists, or to step outside of our comfort zone to try something different to alleviate suffering, we must be rooted in God.

In today's Eucharist, let us pray for grace to be rooted in God so that we, like Jesus, can confront evil and bring freedom to those who suffer.

Anthony Chezzi, Sudbury, ON.

Stewardship Reflection

"And if a house is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand."

Mark 3:25

Do your parish ministries complement each other or do they compete against each other? Is your parish "one Body of Christ" or a bunch of little, separate ministries controlled by human ego? The goal of all parish ministries is to bring people to Christ. All of our parish work should be for the glory of God's name, not our own name.

The Parish Planning Committee had a sneak peak of the renderings produced by Keystone Architects for the Vestibule Expansion Project. Modern exterior elements complement the current structure and a beautiful cross has been placed as a separate feature with street view visibility. Approximately 1,000 sq. ft has been added to the vestibule to accommodate overflow seating, expanded bathroom facilities (including a family room), kitchenette and of course ample space to connect parishioners together after Mass. Stay tuned ... a large format rendering will be provided very shortly for everyone to view and provide comments.
