Understanding the value of arranging one's cemetery and funeral services in advance is not as difficult as it seems. In fact, pre-arranging is the most loving, caring and considerate act someone can do because it spares their loved ones the burden and responsibility of making emotional and financial decisions at their most difficult time.

FUNERALS:

Please call the parish office before making arrangements.

"He summoned the Twelve and began to send them out two by two." This Sunday we read the first sending of the apostles to preach, teach, and heal. For many of us, it can be easy to think we "just don't have enough" to be disciples and evangelists ourselves. We don't have enough education and training. We don't have enough experience talking to people about Jesus. We don't pray enough. We don't have enough faith.

If you look at the Apostles in today's Gospel reading, they did not have much either. "No food, no sack, no money in their belts." They did not plan out their itinerary or book their lodging in advance. From what we know of the apostles, they were not the religiously trained and educated ones. They were fishermen, tax collectors, and political activists. But what does being a fisherman require? Someone like Peter needed a strong work ethic to rise at strange hours. He needed patient calm to wait for the catch. Once ashore, he needed a savvy mind to fetch a good price for his labours.

As Peter became a fisher of men, he would need diligence to persevere through the hard journeys, long days, and persecution that awaited him. He would need patient calm with those who disagreed with him. As the leader of the apostles, he would need a savvy mind to navigate challenges facing the early Church. From one perspective, Peter has nothing to offer the mission of Jesus. Thinking more creatively, one can see that—joined with faith and love—perhaps Peter had everything he needed.

Jesus sends you as well. As you take stock of your own talents, consider how they might be offered as a gift to others. Maybe you already have more than enough.

In the book of Kings, we read the story of the prophet Elijah. Much of his prayer, fasting, and public ministry occurred from Carmel, a mountain in Israel.

Christian hermits—seeking solitude—made their homes on the mountain during the first millennium. Over time the hermits assembled into a community and were given a Rule of Life. They named their Church after Mary—Our Lady of Mount Carmel. Political upheaval forced the Carmelite order out of the Holy Land and into Europe, where they established monasteries for both men and women across the continent. Many great saints and doctors of the Church have come from the Carmelite order, including St. Teresa of Avila, St. John of the Cross, St. Therese of Lisieux and St. Edith Stein. Our Lady of Mount Carmel, pray for us!

PREP (Parish Religious Education Program)

- Did you read the story about the pilgrimage from Paris to Chartres? It is in the latest B.C. Catholic. Very interesting and inspiring.
- More than 50 years ago I also took part in a walking pilgrimage. It was called Pax Christi. We walked 10 kilometres every day, Thursday, Friday and Saturday. As we went through the lush countryside in the province of Brabant, we meditated, prayed, sang and gave praise to the Lord. The highlight was the special Mass in the splendid Cathedral in 's Hertogenbosch. All the participants were students in our last year before entering the work force. We surely thought that we were going to change the world. Has anything changed? Our students still have those dreams and we are still asking God's grace to be with us. Ria Ling

LIVE THE LITURGY

Do you describe yourself as a holy person? For many, becoming holy may not be seen as a desirous goal. We are all called to be holy but maybe not in the way we often imagined. Holiness is nothing more than doing ordinary things with great love and faith. St. Teresa of Calcutta says, "Holiness is not something extraordinary. Holiness is for every one of us as a simple duty—the acceptance of God with a smile, at all times, anywhere and everywhere." Holiness has to do with understanding that our faith has a lot to do with how we see and live life. It is that simple. Are you willing to go about the simple business of your life and be holy?

- ♦ Follow us on Instagram at @stmatthewsyouthmin and join our Facebook group facebook.com/groups/stmatthewsyouthmin for all updates!

CONFIRMATION CLASS OF 2018: You are invited to attend our upcoming Post-Confirmation Retreat taking place on the evening of Friday, September 7 and all day on Saturday, September 8, in the Gym. The retreat will help new high school students make a successful transition to High School and aid them in making good choices. For registration and more information, please visit saintmatthews.ca/events. Register by August 31 for the Early Bird rate.

Stewardship:

“He instructed them to take nothing for the journey but a walking stick—no food, no sack, no money in their belts.” (Mark 6:8). How different we are from the apostles who took nothing when they ventured out to serve God. Today, we make our life’s journey more difficult because of all the material baggage that we drag along. When we really put God first in everything and put money and possession second, we experience freedom to joyfully serve God and others.

B.C. Sacred Music Symposium

Sts. Joachim & Ann Parish will host the inaugural B.C. Sacred Music Symposium, July 20-22. This symposium aims to bring together musicians of all skill levels, and all people of goodwill with a general interest in sacred music, for a weekend of instruction, collaboration and fellowship. There will be an opportunity to attend practical workshops (beginner, intermediate and masterclass) and to experience the riches of the Church’s musical tradition in the celebrations of Mass (in both the Ordinary and Extraordinary forms) and the Divine Office. Keynote speaker and celebrant of the symposium’s principal Mass will be Bishop Joseph Perry, Auxiliary Bishop of the Archdiocese of Chicago. For more info and registration, visit <http://rcav.org/event/bc-sacred-music-symposium>.
