Pastor's Corner

Dear Parishioners,

Now that we are in the middle of our summer time break it seems a good time to prompt people to think of plans for "back to school" in September. I'm thinking of those who may have thought about taking the RCIA program for becoming a Catholic, or who know of someone who may be interested. We start in mid September and have our sights set on the Easter celebration next Spring for entry into the Church. A word of encouragement may be a good starting point for a family member or friend to consider taking this next step.

And also for September we need to have parents, with elementary children enrolled in the public school system, register them for our Prep classes. The classes are held on Thursday evenings in the school and are meant to assist parents in the faith formation of their children. The registration packages for these students will be available at the parish office and can be picked up at your convenience.

Have a good week!

Fr. Dion

Star of the Sea @ CAMP LATONA

Last weekend over one hundred people from Star of the Sea (including Father Ajin) went to Camp Latona on Gambier Island for a fun-filled Family Camp adventure!

Along with many activities and games on the warm waters of Howe Sound and in the island forest, families spent time bonding at daily morning Mass, and singing around the campfire!

The kids got to discover new abilities and build their confidence zip-lining, kneeboarding and kayaking, while the adults got to relax and skip cooking 😊 and also practice camp etiquette (elbows on the table=public chastening). Since Family Camp was so popular (waitlisted) this year, we hope to organize it again in the summer of 2019!

This Sunday's Mass Readings

1ST READING: Exodus 16:2-4, 12-15
RESPONSORIAL: Psalm 78:3-4, 23-25, 54
2ND READING: Ephesians 4:17, 20-24
GOSPEL: John 6: 24-35

POPE FRANCIS ~ ANGELUS at Saint Peter's Square
2 August 2015 w2.vatican.va

On this Sunday, the reading of the sixth chapter of the Gospel of John continues. After the multiplication of the loaves, the people started to look for Jesus and finally found him at Capernaum. He understands the reason for their enthusiasm in following him and clearly reveals it: "You are looking for me not because you have seen signs, but because you have eaten of those loaves and have been satisfied" (John 6:26).

In reality, those people follow him for the material bread that had placated their hunger the day before, when Jesus had made the multiplication of the loaves; they did not understand that that bread, broken for many was the expression of love of Jesus himself. They gave more value to that bread than to its donor. Faced with this spiritual blindness, Jesus emphasizes the need to go beyond the gift, and discover, know the giver. God himself is the gift and also the giver. And so from that bread, from that gesture, people can find the one who gives it, which is God. It invites us to open ourselves to a perspective that is not only that of the daily preoccupations of eating, dressing, success, career. Jesus speaks of another food, speaks of a food that is not corruptible and that it is good to look for and welcome. He exhorts: "Do not work for food that spoils, but for food that endures to eternal life, which the Son of Man will give you..." (John 6:27).

And with these words, he wants us to understand that, in addition to physical hunger, man carries in himself another hunger - we all have this hunger - a more important hunger, which can not be satisfied with ordinary food. It is a question of hunger for life, of hunger for eternity that only He can satisfy, since it is "the bread of life" (v.35).

Jesus does not eliminate the worry and the search for daily food, no. But Jesus reminds us that the true meaning of our earthly existence is in eternity - it lies in the encounter with Him. He is THE gift and the gift giver!

Jesus also reminds us that human history with its sufferings and its joys must be seen in a horizon of eternity, that is, in that horizon of the definitive encounter with him. And this encounter illuminates all the days of our life. If we think about this meeting, this great gift, the small gifts of life, even the sufferings, the worries will be illuminated by the hope of this meeting.

"I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me will never be hungry and whoever believes in me will not be thirsty, never!" (v.35). This is the reference to the Eucharist, the greatest gift that satisfies the soul and the body. To meet and welcome in us Jesus, the bread of life, gives meaning and hope to the often tortuous path of life. But this bread of life is given to us with a task: because we can in our turn satisfy the spiritual and material hunger of our brothers and sisters by announcing the Gospel everywhere!

WHERE DO YOU SEE YOURSELF? Do you sit in judgement over those who came to Jesus asking for more bread? Or are you humbled by the reality that that's just the human heart? The question is not, "Do we agree that we all hunger for something?" The question is, "Do we agree with God about what that thing is?" Jesus exposes their motivation in coming to him as he exposes ours: Are you in this for the benefits of Christianity but not the Christ of Christianity? Is there a disparity between the public appearance of your relationship with God and the private reality of it? If so, turn to him now and confess this and ask him to change your heart. Because Jesus tells us in today's beautiful Gospel that He is ALL you need. He is the ONE you are looking for, the thing you're hungering for. To have him and nothing else is to have everything!

Let us pray that the Blessed Virgin support us in the search for and in the following of her Son Jesus, the true bread, the living bread that does not become corrupted and lasts for eternal life.

We cannot live the Christian life on our own! We constantly battle sin, temptation, concupiscence, the influence of the world, the enemy, and our desire to become holy through our own efforts. Our efforts are absolutely necessary, but they cannot bear spiritual fruit without the grace (help) of the Holy Spirit.

Source looks at the role of the Holy Spirit in the lives of the faithful and the powerful difference the third person of the Trinity can make! This 6-week study will give you an opportunity to encounter the Holy Spirit — allowing Him to enflame your heart with God’s love, leading to a greater experience of His gifts and fruits by submitting your will to His promptings and leading.
