Pastor's Corner

Dear Parishioners,

Last weekend I made an announcement at the 9 and 11 Masses that I had not sent to anyone a request to buy iTunes gift cards, but that someone out there in space had done so and had used my name in this email request. Please be aware that this kind of fake messaging often uses the name of someone who is known in the community with a faint hint of possibility in the story given, and therefore those who receive the email request might respond to it in good faith. Please be assured that these are scam artists at work. I'm not really sure what iTunes cards do!

In a few week's time there will be another Baptism Preparation Session, so for any parents who are expecting a child in the next several months, or who already have a child who has yet to be baptized, please call the office and register your attendance. The Church urges us to bring our children to the parish for Baptism as soon as they are born, as the document says: "without delay", so please be prepared for this Sacrament well before the expectant date of birth. The session will be on Saturday morning, Sept. 15th, at 10am.

Have a good week,

Fr. Dion

POPE FRANCIS ~ ANGELUS at Saint Peter's Square
16 August 2015 w2.vatican.va

Dear Brothers and Sisters:

These past few Sundays, the Liturgy from John's Gospel is offering us Jesus' discourse on the Bread of Life, which He himself is, just as the Sacrament of the Eucharist is.

Today's passage presents the final part of this discussion, and refers to several of those who were scandalized because Jesus said: "he who eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day" (John 6:54). The listeners' astonishment is understandable; Jesus in fact uses the typical manner of the prophets to provoke questions in people — and also in us — and, ultimately, to provoke a decision.

First of all, regarding the questions: what is meant by "eat the flesh and drink the blood" of Jesus? Is it just an image, a figure of speech, a symbol, or does it indicate something real? In order to answer, one must divine what is happening in Jesus' heart as he breaks the bread for the hungry crowd. Knowing that he will have to die on the cross for us, Jesus identifies himself with that bread broken and shared, and it becomes for him the "sign" of the Sacrifice that awaits him.

This process culminates in the Last Supper, where the bread and wine truly become his Body and his Blood. It is the Eucharist, which Jesus leaves us with a specific purpose: that we may become one with Him. Indeed he says: "He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood abides in me, and I in him" (v. 56). That "abiding": Jesus in us and we in Jesus. Communion is assimilation: partaking of Him, we become as He is. This requires our "yes", our adherence of faith.

Regarding the Holy Mass, I sometimes hear this objection: "Of what use is Mass? I go to Church when I feel like it, and I pray better in solitude!" But the Eucharist is not a private prayer or a beautiful spiritual exercise; it is not just a simple commemoration of what Jesus did at the Last Supper. The Eucharist is a remembrance - that is a gesture which renders real and present the event of Jesus' death and resurrection. The bread really is his Body given up for us, the wine really is his Blood poured out for us.

The Eucharist is Jesus himself who gives himself entirely to us. Through Eucharistic Communion, we are nourished of Him and abiding in Him; and if we do so with faith, this transforms our life. This transforms our life into a gift to God and to our brothers and sisters. Nourishing ourselves of that "Bread of Life" means entering into harmony with the heart of Christ, assimilating his choices, his thoughts, his behaviour (i.e.

being a disciple). It means entering into a dynamism of love (i.e. a personal relationship) and becoming people of peace, people of forgiveness, of reconciliation, of sharing in solidarity.

Jesus concludes his discourse with these words: "he who eats this bread will live for ever" (v. 58). Yes, living in real communion with Jesus on this earth lets us pass from death to life. Heaven begins precisely in this communion with Jesus.

The Eucharist is the summit of God's saving action: the Lord Jesus, by becoming bread broken for us, pours upon us all of His mercy and His love, so as to renew our hearts, our lives, and our way of relating with Him and with our brethren.

The Art of Daily Conversation

Do you feel called to help a friend renew their relationship with God? Sometimes all it takes is starting a new conversation with them. But how do we start that conversation?

Learn practical tips from Amber Zolc (CCO and Archdiocese of Vancouver) about the Art of Invitation on Saturday, September 8th, 9:00am-Noon, Good Shepherd Church. No cost, but please register through the Parish Office 604-531-5739

Have you been thinking of joining the Church?

Do you have friends you would like to introduce to the Catholic faith?

COME AND SEE
Wednesday, September 12th
7:00pm
Good Shepherd Church

PLEASE NOTE: Attendance does not commit you to joining the Church. We begin with a period of inquiry. Come discern with us!

What is Alpha? An opportunity to explore life, meaning and the Christian faith, in a friendly, open and informal environment. Alpha is not so much a course, but an experience! Gathering once a week over a 8-wk period, each Alpha experience brings together people from every walk of life.

We begin each Alpha sharing some light refreshments, then we watch a 20-25min video, followed by a chance to share your thoughts in an informal small group setting. No question is out of bounds or too silly or too simple. There is NO teaching/preaching involved during the group discussions – just a sharing of our views as we explore topics such as:

- Is there more to life than this?
- Who is Jesus?
- Why did Jesus die?
- Why and how do I pray?

Who is Alpha for? Alpha is for everyone including:
- those outside the Church or on the fringes of faith
- lapsed Catholics
- those who want to experience a new and deeper life in Christ through a personal encounter with Him.

Alpha has no prerequisites whatsoever. There is no pressure and no follow up. We come together with one another as we are, free to be ourselves.
