Archbishop's Statement on Abuse (Excerpt)

"Over the past few weeks, a number of very serious accounts of sexual abuse in the Catholic Church have become public. Like you, I am devastated by these accounts of profound evil.

What the victims of sexual abuse have endured has shaken me and broken my heart. I grieve for what they have suffered at the hands of their abusers and by those who betrayed their spiritual fatherhood by failing to protect those entrusted to their pastoral care... As a bishop, I am especially upset with those bishops and priests who failed to protect the most vulnerable among us. They did not live up to their calling as shepherds and, even more, as spiritual fathers. What father would come to know that his child had been abused and do nothing about it? What father would cover up the abuse and tell his child to "get over it" in order to protect the family's "reputation"? Would that they had acted like Jesus, who showed his anger towards those who defiled the temple! If you are aware of any situation of abuse happening now, please immediately contact law enforcement authorities. If the abuse involves a member of the clergy or any person engaged in ministry in our Archdiocese, please also make us aware. You may find our webpage on reporting abuse at: <https://rcav.org/safe-environment-reporting/> If you know of any sexual abuse that occurred in the past, but have not reported it before, consider doing so now..." Copies of Archbishop Miller's full statement are available in the foyer or online at rcav.org.

Thanks for Glasses The box for old eyeglasses in the foyer is getting good use. Thank you! The Knights collect the glasses which are then screened, cleaned and sent to a third world country for help people with vision issues there.
