Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time
 September 2, 2018

Jesus

replied,

“Isaiah was right when he prophesied about you hypocrites; as it is written:

‘These people honor me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me.

They worship me in vain; their teachings are merely human rules.’

Pastor's Corner

Dear Parishioners,

This week we begin "my favorite month of the year," as my mother used to say, because it was when the kids all went back to school! And of course the routine of the various groups in the parish resume their regularly scheduled meetings and activities that usually take a break for the summer months. Our two new priests have settled into the rectory and have begun to get used to the routine of things, and each of them will be taking special responsibility in certain aspects of parish life, ie:

Fr. Francis: sick calls to Peace Arch Hospital, Communion ministry to the shut-ins, Chaplain to the Legion of Mary, Chaplain to the Knights of Columbus.

Fr. Ajin: Youth ministry in the parish and Chaplain to St. John Paul II Academy.

And in regard to new responsibilities, I'm pleased to announce the following two appointments:

- 1) Mrs. Irina Slijouk as Co-ordinator for the Parish Religious Education Program, after the retirement of Geraldine Methven.
- 2) Mr. Dennis Skulsky as the Chairman of our Parish Building Committee, after the departure of the past chairman, Jim McKinley, who moved to Vancouver Island this summer where his daughter and grand children live.

I welcome these parishioners to their important roles in the life of the Parish, and hope for the Lord's blessings on the work they are taking on for the good of our faith family.

Have a good week, Fr. Dion

P.S. On the topic of service to the life of the Parish, we are seeking new volunteers to train as ushers in Good Shepherd Church. Please contact the Parish Office as we'll have training for those in the ushering ministry on September 29th. Thank you!

POPE FRANCIS ~ ANGELUS at Saint Peter's Square
30 August 2015 w2.vatican.va

Dear Brothers and Sisters:

The Gospel of this Sunday presents a dispute between Jesus and some Pharisees and scribes. The discussion concerns the value of the "tradition of the ancients" (Mark 7:3) and Jesus, quoting the prophet Isaiah, defines them as the "precepts of men" (v.7) (i.e. man-made rules) and they can never take the place of the "commandment of God" (v.8). These ancient rules and rituals included not only the precepts of God revealed to Moses, but also a series of dietary laws and cleanliness laws that were followed to specify the indications of the Mosaic law. [For example, there were certain foods that cannot be eaten and certain ways to wash before eating, believing that if these procedures were not followed this made you unclean.] Those speaking with Jesus that day applied these rules in a very scrupulous way and presented them as an expression of authentic religiosity.

The answer Jesus gives them has the strength of a prophetic pronouncement: By neglecting the commandment of God, he says, you observe the tradition of men. These are words that fill us with admiration for our Master!

But be careful! With these words, Jesus wants to warn us too, today, to not believe that the outward observance of the law is sufficient to be a good Christian. As with the Pharisees of Jesus' day, there is also the danger for us of considering ourselves okay or worse - better than others just by observing the right Church rules or customs, all the while being hard of heart, not loving our neighbor, thinking we are superb.

The literal observance of the rules of conduct is something meaningless if it does not change the heart and does not translate into concrete attitudes: opening oneself to the encounter with God and his Word in prayer, seeking justice and peace, helping the poor, the weak, the oppressed. We all know, in our parishes, in our communities and neighborhoods, what bad this kind of exterior observance of rules with no interior transformation can do to the Church; what scandal it is for the Church when people who say they are very Catholic and go to church but in their daily lives, they neglect their family, on speak badly about others and so on. This is what Jesus vehemently condemns, because this is a Christian counter-witness.

Continuing in his exhortation, Jesus focuses his attention on a deeper aspect and affirms: "There is nothing outside the man who, by entering him, can make him unclean. But it is the things that come out of man to make him unclean" (v.15). Once again, Jesus underlines the primacy of the interiority, that is the primacy of the heart. It is not the external things that make us saints or not saints, but it is the heart that expresses our intentions, our choices and the desire to do everything for God's sake. Outward attitudes are the consequence of what we have decided in our hearts, but not the other way around. In other words, no amount of religiosity, or pious conduct and rule following will make you a true Christian if the heart does not change.

We can ask ourselves: where is my heart? Jesus said: "Where your treasure is, there your heart will be also" (Mt 6:21). So what is my treasure? Is my treasure Jesus, is it his teachings? Or is the treasure another thing?

Therefore, it is the heart that must be purified and converted. Without a purified heart, one can not have truly clean hands and lips that pronounce sincere words of love - everything else is counterfeit, a double life. Lips that pronounce words of mercy, of forgiveness ~ only the sincere and purified heart can do it.

Let us ask the Lord, through the intercession of the Blessed Virgin, to give us a pure heart, free from all hypocrisy. This is the adjective that Jesus says to the Pharisees: "hypocrites", because they say one thing and make it another. A heart free from all hypocrisy, so that we are able to live according to the spirit of the law and reach its goal, which is love.

RCIA

is the journey of preparation for those who seek to know Jesus Christ in their lives and desire a conversion of heart, and then be gradually introduced to the Catholic faith and way of life.

This process is for adults and older children who:

- have never been baptized, or
- baptized in another denomination & is considering becoming Catholic, or
- who are baptized Catholic but are not yet in full communion with the Church through First Eucharist and Confirmation.

Our RCIA team are made up of parishioners who love the Lord and His Church and are excited to help facilitate each person's unique experience of God's love and call in their lives.

RCIA is not just education for adults who want to become Catholic, with rituals marking their journey. RCIA is bigger than that! It is a WAY of faith... Jesus called himself "the way, the truth, and the life". To follow Jesus is to become fully one with him and his WAY of life.

Psalms

While the historical books of the Bible recount God's creative and redemptive acts in history, the PSALMS reveal Israel's response to God's covenant offer and serve as a model for our response to Him. The PSALMS come from the deeply personal perspective of one who is seeking God. Our communication with God is enhanced by a deeper understanding of the book of Psalms and of the individual psalms that reside in each of our hearts.

This is a 10-week study starting September 27th

Thursdays 1:00pm OR 7:00pm

No Cost (optional study guide $20).

It's time to "fall" back into our routines and schedules! The first meeting after our summer break is this coming Tuesday, September 4th, following the 6:30pm Mass at Good Shepherd Church.

We welcome our guest speaker, Gail Arlin, a CWL member, who will be presenting "Magnificat" ~ a ministry for Catholic women called to live out the mystery of Mary's visit to Elizabeth.

We look forward to seeing both our current members and any of the ladies in our parish who would like to join us!
