Pastor's Corner

Dear Parishioners,

Next weekend we will welcome to the Parish a visiting missionary priest from the country of Tanzania in East Africa. His name is Fr. Gosbert Mgina and he comes to us under the auspices of the Mission Appeal Program of the Archdiocese, and will speak of the work of the Church in his area and the special project that he is raising funds for, the building of a medical dispensary in his parish, which will serve several villages in the surrounding area. There are "special" donation envelopes available to support this worthy mission, and all gifts will be receipted through the parish with tax receipts issued in due course. Thank you for your support.

Fr. Gosbert will be staying in the rectory guest room and will have a chance to visit our school and also meet some of you at the weekday morning Masses while he's here. Fr. Gosbert will be speaking at the Saturday 4PM Mass at Star of the Sea and the Sunday 9AM, 11AM and 7PM Masses at Good Shepherd.

And with regard to our picnic this afternoon, just in case we have a rainy afternoon with a soggy field, our plan B is to gather in the gym and the entrance area of the church and under any walk area we can find in order to enjoy our bbq chicken without being rained on! Let's pray for a dry day and joyful spirits.

Have a good week,

Fr. Dion

POPE FRANCIS ~ ANGELUS at Saint Peter's Square

13 September 2015 w2.vatican.va

Dear Brothers and Sisters:

Today's Gospel presents us Jesus who, on his way towards Caesarea Philippi, asks the disciples: "Who do men say that I am?" (Mark 8:27). They respond with what the people are saying: some believe he is John the Baptist reborn, others Elijah or one of the great Prophets. The people appreciated Jesus, they considered him "God's emissary", but still were unable to recognize him as the foretold Messiah, awaited by all. Jesus looks at the Apostles and asks again: "But who do you say that I am?" (v. 29) This is the most important question, which Jesus directly addresses to those who have followed him, to verify their faith. Jesus asks this of YOU and I today: "But who do YOU say that I am?"

It is Peter who exclaims candidly: "You are the Christ" (v. 29). Jesus is struck by Peter's faith, and recognizes that it is a special grace of God the Father. Then he openly reveals to the disciples what awaits him in Jerusalem: "the Son of man must suffer many things... be killed, and after three days rise again" (v. 31).

On hearing this, Peter, who had just professed his faith in Jesus as Messiah, takes the Master aside and rebukes him. Jesus in turn rebukes Peter, with these very harsh words: "Get behind me, Satan!" Why? Because: "...you are setting your mind not on divine things but on human things." (v. 33). Jesus sees in Peter — and in each one of us — that temptation by the Evil One that opposes the grace of the Father; the temptation to think only of the temporal, of our own interests, how it would benefit ourselves.

But the ministry of Jesus is opposite of that. And for this reason, turning toward the whole crowd there, He says "If any man would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me" (v. 34) To undertake the discipleship of Jesus means to take up your cross — we all have one — to accompany him on his path, an uncomfortable path that is not of worldly success or of personal glory, but one which takes us to true freedom, to that which frees us from selfishness and sin. It is necessary to clearly reject that worldly mentality which places one's "I" and one's own interests at the centre of existence. That is not what Jesus wants from us!

Instead Jesus invites us to lose our life for him and for the Gospel. Because this is the path that leads us to the resurrection. This is the path we were created for, that leads to the fullness of joy and a peace that surpasses all understanding ~ to the full and definitive life with God!

Archdiocese of Vancouver

MISSION APPEAL for the

DIOCESE OF IRINGA, TANZANIA

Fr. Gosbert Mgina will be visiting our parish on the weekend of September 22 & 23 to speak on behalf of Madege Parish in Diocese of Iringa in Tanzania.

Fr. Mgina wrote: "Madege Parish is in the Diocese of Iringa, Tanzania (...). The Parish is situated 80 kilometers south east of Iringa town (...). The parish was started by the Consolata missionaries in the year of 1996, The number of the baptized up to the moment is 5,012. There are 14 outstations, of which 10 are relatively small ones. Magede is characterized with mountainous landscape known as Udzungwa mountain ranges. Unfortunately the soil is not good for cash crops. Hence the people are poor peasant farmers growing only subsistence crops like maize, beans, millet, pine trees, etc. for hand to mouth survival. Poor and dangerous roads especially during rainy seasons cripple the economy. Hence no way to transport and sell their little harvest. Madege Parish face problems, the critical one is the access to Medical Treatment. Here at the parish, we have a dispensary which help these people. However, many have to walk up to 12 kilometers to reach here. It is something difficult especially for women who must attend 'mother and child' health services. We would like to construct another dispensary in the nearby village called Ilutila. The dispensary will serve several villages, for it will bring health services more close to them. They will have a short distance to reach the service."

Thank you for your generosity and prayers. Mission Appeal envelopes are available starting this weekend.

WHAT IS LIFE CHAIN?

Life Chain is a prayerful and peaceful witness to the sanctity of human life and the harm of abortion. Every year, Life Chain participants hold signs with messages such as "Life: the first inalienable right" and "Abortion kills children" at hundreds of locations across North America for one hour. It is a simple but powerful reminder of our duty to defend the weakest members of our society.

THE PRO-LIFE VIEW

Pro-lifers believe that human life is intrinsically valuable in all circumstances and at all stages. Every human being, regardless of age or ability, deserves human rights, the most fundamental of which is the right of life. Science proves that life begins at fertilization. When a woman faces an unplanned pregnancy, the solution is not to kill the innocent child. We as a society, can do better than abortion.

DID YOU KNOW?

- Canada is the only Western country with no law on abortion.
- Approximately 300 abortions happen every day in Canada - over 100,000 every year
- Since 1969, there have been over 4 million abortions in Canada
- 1 out of every 5 unborn babies in

This year marks our Annual Fall Gala's 23rd anniversary! That is, for over 20 years, parishioners, school parents, friends and supporters have worked collaboratively to build our parish and school community.

Through the years, Stella Maris Gala has grown into a major revenue source for our parish school. Funds raised have contributed to:

- Building our school gymnasium, which is used by the school, various parish groups and community events,
- Building of the east wing of the school including a library and beautiful Fine Arts Room (where our church choirs practice weekly!);
- Renovated sports field; and most recently,
- The installation of a new phone technology system and security door locking system.

Funds raised this year will go towards technology enhancements for the school, including classroom projectors, 3-D printers and robotics.

The success of Gala is based on the generosity of our families, parishioners and businesses in our community. We invite you to consider supporting us this year in one of the following ways:

Auction Item Donation

We are in need of many items, big and small, to fill our Auction catalogue. Any NEW items are gratefully accepted and can be dropped off at the Parish Office. Arrangements can be made to pick up your item from you as well. Tax receipts adhering to CRA guidelines available. Auction donation forms and more information are available from the Parish Office.

Event Sponsorship

Our goal is to have all expenses for this event covered by sponsors ~ Individual/Family Sponsors and Corporate Sponsors. Sponsorship Recognition Benefit program and tax receipts adhering to CRA guidelines are available. Sponsorship forms are available at the Parish Office.

Volunteer for the Event

Many jobs on the days leading up to the event (Oct 15-19), on the night of the event (Oct 20), and clean-up day (Oct 21). Please email gala@starofthesea.ca to volunteer for Gala.
