October is Respect Life Month and here in the Archdiocese October 1st – 5th is Respect Life week. There is a website (www.respectlifeweek.com) which the diocese has launched with some other dioceses and has lots of information and activities that can be used with children and young people. Topics include immigration/refugees, environment, loneliness, assisted suicide, marriage and family, abortion--through the lens of our Catholic faith.

Our own Respect Life committee is very active and is participating in 40 Days for Life during the month. If you would like to sign up to do an hour prayer with them during the 40 days you can still do so through the office.

It is a month when we are called to prayer and action so that all life is respected as precious and sacred.

Bringing God's Word Home
27th Sunday in Ordinary Time Oct. 7, 2018

Gospel: Mk 10: 2-16

The Pharisees approached Jesus and asked, "Is it lawful for a husband to divorce his wife?" They were testing him. He said to them in reply, "What did Moses command you?" They replied, "Moses permitted a husband to write a bill of divorce and dismiss her." But Jesus told them, "Because of the hardness of your hearts he wrote you this commandment. But from the beginning of creation, God made them male and female. For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh. So they are no longer two but one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, no human being must separate." In the house the disciples again questioned Jesus about this. He said to them, "Whoever divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery against her; and if she divorces her husband and marries another, she commits adultery." And people were bringing children to him that he might touch them, but the disciples rebuked them. When Jesus saw this he became indignant and said to them, "Let the children come to me; do not prevent them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. Amen, I say to you, whoever does not accept the kingdom of God like a child will not enter it." Then he embraced them and blessed them, placing his hands on them.

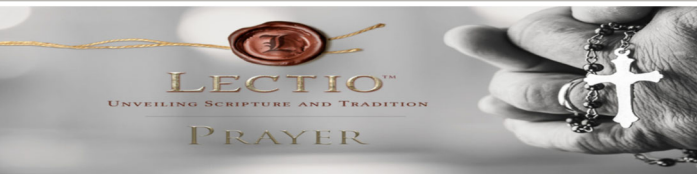

Food for the Spirit—Reflection

1. How does my daily life reflect the love of Christ for all people?
2. Am I aware of the deep effect that my daily actions and attitudes have on those in my life circle? Are they the attitudes and actions of Jesus?
3. My plan for this week:

Our Prayer Ministry is back!

A DAY OF Prayer + Listening

In light of all the recent news of the abuse scandals in the Church we invite people to an evening of listening and prayer on Friday, October 12 at 7:00pm in St. Joseph's Room at the Parish Center

We hope that this will be an opportunity to listen, share our feelings and concerns and to bring all that to prayer together for healing and change in our Church.

The Archdiocese produced an account of our response over the years in Los Angeles. The letter is too long for the bulletin so we will have some copies on the credenza outside Church and we will have it on our website should anyone wish to read it.

Please call the Parish office to sign-up 818-342-4686

Mensaje del Párroco

Octubre es el mes de Respeto a La Vida y aquí, en la Arquidiócesis de Los Ángeles, del 1o al 5o de octubre esta es la semana de Respeto a la Vida. Hay un sitio web (www.respectlifeweek.com) que la diócesis ha lanzado con otras diócesis y que tiene mucha información y actividades que se pueden utilizar con niños y jóvenes. Los temas incluyen inmigración / refugiados, medio ambiente, soledad, suicidio asistido, matrimonio y familia, aborto, del punto de vista de nuestra fe católica.

Nuestro propio comité de Respeto a la Vida está muy activo y participa en lo que llamamos 40 Días por la Vida durante el mes. Si desea inscribirse para hacer una hora de oración con ellos durante los 40 días, puede informarse a través de la oficina.

Este es un mes en el que somos llamados a la oración y a la acción para que toda la vida sea respetada como preciosa y sagrada.

Disenfranchised (unspoken) Grief – how we can help...

How we can help each other with the hidden grief of miscarriage, stillbirth or abortion? Often, we don't know what to say when a man or woman reaches out to us who has suffered such a loss.

Sharon St. Pierre, LCSW, from the LA Archdiocese will be here on Sunday October 7th at 12:30 pm in the St. Joseph room, to talk with us about how to help those in need of healing.

Sharon's presentation will teach us ways to become an instrument of mercy for someone dealing with a grief that is real. Come and learn about disenfranchised grief and what you can do to support friends, family, or fellow parishioners who may be struggling with an unspoken loss.
