Stewardship Reflection

"And 'to love him with all your heart, with all your understanding, with all your strength, and to love your neighbor as yourself' is worth more than all the burnt offerings and sacrifices." Mark 12:3

Of all the gifts that God gives us the one He wants the most is our heart. He wants us to share out of love, not out of obligation. Using our talent in parish ministry and contributing money to support our parish mission is important, but it's more important to spend time in prayer with God daily and discern how He is calling us to be generous with all of our gifts. Not just the visible ones, but the invisible ones like love, mercy and forgiveness.

THE ST. VINCENT DE PAUL annual collection will take place on November 11. You have always been very generous with your monetary contributions and we thank you most sincerely for your generosity. Envelopes are in your envelope boxes and extra envelopes will be available in the Church foyer. Cheques to be made out to the Saint Vincent de Paul Society. We are also requesting that you consider joining us in our mission, as we are in great need of volunteers,

PRAYERS FOR THE HOLY SOULS IN PURGATORY

V. O Lord, hear my prayer.

R. And let my cry come unto to Thee.

Let us pray.

O God, Creator and Redeemer of all the faithful, grant to the souls of Thy departed servants the remission of all their sins, that through our pious supplications they may obtain the pardon which they have always desired. Through Christ Our Lord. Amen.

O God, the Giver of pardon and the Lover of the salvation of men, we beg Thy clemency on behalf of our brethren, kinsfolk and benefactors who have departed this life, that by the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary and of all the Saints, Thou wouldst receive them into the joys of Thine everlasting Kingdom. Through Christ Our Lord. Amen.

O God, to Whom it belongs always to have mercy and to spare, be favourably propitious to the souls of Thy servants and grant them the remission of all their sins, that being delivered from the bonds of this mortal life, they may be admitted to life everlasting. Through Christ Our Lord. Amen.

O God, who hast commanded us to honour our father and our mother; in Thy mercy have pity on the souls of my father and mother, and forgive them their trespasses; and make me to see them again in the joy of everlasting brightness. Through Christ Our Lord. Amen.

O God, who in the ranks of the Apostolic Priesthood hast caused Thy servants to be invested with the pontifical or priestly dignity; grant, we beseech Thee, that they also may be joined unto the everlasting fellowship of the same Thy priests. Through Christ Our Lord. Amen.

IN YOUR CHARITY, PRAY FOR THE PRIESTS OF THE ARCHDIOCESE OF VANCOUVER WHO ENTERED INTO ETERNAL REST IN THE MONTH OF NOVEMBER:

Clergyman's name:	Day of Death:
Fr Joseph McNeill	4 November 1918

THE FINAL PURIFICATION, OR PURGATORY

1030 All who die in God's grace and friendship, but still imperfectly purified, are indeed assured of their salvation; but after death they undergo purification, so as to achieve the holiness necessary to enter the joy of heaven.

1031 The Church gives the name Purgatory to this final purification of the elect, which is entirely different from the punishment of the damned. The Church formulated her doctrine of faith on Purgatory especially at the Councils of Florence and Trent. The tradition of the Church, by reference to certain texts of Scripture, speaks of a cleansing fire:

"As for certain lesser faults, we must believe that, before the Final Judgement, there is a purifying fire. He who is truth says that whoever utters blasphemy against the Holy Spirit will be pardoned neither in this age nor in the age to come. From this sentence we understand that certain offenses can be forgiven in this age, but certain others in the age to come." (St. Gregory the Great)

1032 This teaching is also based on the practice of prayer for the dead, already mentioned in Sacred Scripture: "Therefore [Judas Maccabeus] made atonement for the dead that they might be delivered from their sin. (Macc 12:46) From the beginning the Church has honored the memory of the dead and offered prayers in suffrage for them, above all the Eucharistic sacrifice, so that, thus purified, they may attain the beatific vision of God. (Council of Lyons) The Church also commends almsgiving, indulgences, and works of penance undertaken on behalf of the dead.

"Let us help and commemorate them. If Job's sons were purified by their father's sacrifice, why would we doubt that our offerings for the dead bring them some consolation? Let us not hesitate to help those who have died and to offer our prayers for them." (St John Chrysostom)

FROM THE HOMILY
OF HIS GRACE, ARCHBISHOP J. MICHAEL MILLER
AT THE
INSTALLATION OF FR. ASHLEY AS PASTOR
Sunday, 28 October 2018

“As pastor, Father Ashley is faithfully to celebrate with you and for you the Church’s Sacraments, above all by offering the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. He is to proclaim to you forcefully, persuasively and in full fidelity to the mind of the Church the challenge of God’s Word as a riveting “two edged sword”.

“As your shepherd, Father Ashley is also called to work with you to build up your parish as a living cell of the Body of Christ encouraging you to serve one another and the wider community. He undertakes this mission and responsibility by offering the care of his spiritual fatherhood to all of you. And he will be able to accomplish all this— and I know he will— with the support of your prayers and your spirit of collaboration.

FROM THE HOMILY
OF HIS GRACE, ARCHBISHOP J. MICHAEL MILLER
AT THE
FIRST ANNUAL BC SACRED MUSIC SYMPOSIUM

---

Saturday, 21, July 2018

Before saying a few words about today's Readings, I want to express my gratitude to the organizers of this symposium on sacred music. As many of you know, one of our archdiocesan priorities in these years is to "make every Sunday matter". This priority contains the added note that steps need to be taken to enhance our celebration of the Sunday Mass by improving the quality of music, so that the beauty of the liturgy can draw the congregation into ever more profound praise and adoration of God.

In a lecture some thirty years ago, the then-Cardinal Joseph Ratzinger said so aptly: "Discourse with God goes beyond the boundaries of [the] human. Hence by its very nature the liturgy has everywhere called upon the help of music, of singing, and of the voices of creation."

When visiting parishes I am inspired by the dedication of so many of our musicians and choir members. They work hard to prepare music and song for the Liturgy –and for that service we should all be extremely grateful. It must be said, however, that on occasion they do not "strike the right note," so to speak. Perhaps it is because we have not provided them with suitable liturgical formation or because the hymnals available are often deficient in providing selections that enable the music to fulfil its role as providing a higher register for the proclamation of the Word. We cannot repeat often enough what the Fathers of the Second Vatican Council wrote about the relationship between sacred music and the Liturgy:

"The musical tradition of the universal Church is a treasure of inestimable value, greater even than that of any other art. The main reason for this pre-eminence is that, as sacred song united to the words, it forms a necessary or integral part of the solemn Liturgy."

In any case, we need to make it increasingly clear that "not every kind of music can have a place in Christian worship." As integral to the celebration, music for the Liturgy– granting pride of place to Gregorian chant and the vast repertoire of sacred polyphony- "is to help us sing and pray the texts of the Mass itself, not just ornament it." (Archbishop A. Sample, Portland, OR) If the music of the Liturgy does not lead us to prayer, then it fails to fulfil its proper role.
