STAR OF THE SEA PARISH

32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time - November 11, 2018

Parish Office Corner

Dear Fellow Parishioners,

This week, our two Assistant Pastors are at the Priests' Study Week. While they are away, there will be no daily Masses on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. Please keep them in your prayers that they may be filled with the Holy Spirit, that they may be strengthened to proclaim the kerygma and to go forth and witness to the Gospel.

You probably have noticed the increased number of activities that are happening in our parish on a weekly basis. Some of our fellow parishioners have responded to the promptings of the Holy Spirit to lead new faith enrichment small groups. A new Korean Bible study group has formed. The many parishioners who are participating in these new faith studies, as well as the programs that have been going on for some time, are moving along their own journeys of faith in community with others. We also now have a weekly coffee morning for school parents after dropping off their children at school.

I feel that the Holy Spirit has been at work in the parish office too. And we are thankful for His guidance and for helping us to see and listen to your faith journey needs, and respond to them. Pope Francis, in his Apostolic Exhortation, Evangelii Gaudium, encourages us "...to be bold and creative in this task of rethinking the goals, structures, style and methods of evangelization in (our) respective communities." (33).

Since we were created for friendship with Jesus, please come to us with your suggestions and ideas for how we might provide opportunities to have that personal encounter with His love that will transform us.

Please pray for us all in the office. Thank you,

Mario

A Remembrance Day Prayer

NOVEMBER 11

*Loving God,
have mercy on your people,
and open our hearts to peace and love.
Reward all who have died for their country,
and grant that Canada and all nations
may continue to work for peace and justice.
Bless us in your service,
and help us to follow Jesus Christ,
who is our Saviour and our Lord
for ever and ever.
Amen.*

I was on Whatsapp two days ago with a friend of mine who's Christian and on the other side of the world, and she is in a country where it is illegal to preach and teach and proclaim the name of Christ. The conversation lends itself to creativity because you have to speak "in code" when speaking about the things of God. We chatted about how things are "at work", and is there anyone new in "the company", and have you been studying the "training manual." In the end, as I ended my conversation with my friend, I thought that as we approach this Remembrance Day weekend, in the safety of "the true north strong and free", we need to stop and remember the fact that for whatever reason, God has allowed our lives to play out in this nation where you never need to speak in code. We never have to fear someone kicking down the door as we celebrate Mass and dragging any number of us away without our families being informed, without a trial being set. And yet, in major sections of the world, you still have to speak in code and worship in secret. And this was purchased for you and for me and for our children by the blood of men and women who thought that there was a greater cause than just their lives.

This weekend, let us slow down a little bit and let our hearts fill with gratitude over what Christ has gifted to us here in the Canada.

~ Janice

This Sunday's Mass Readings

1ST READING: 1 Kings 1:10-16
RESPONSORIAL: Psalm 146:7-10
2ND READING: Hebrews 9:24-28
GOSPEL: Mark 12:41-44

Life is a Gift, Not a Show by Francesco Follo
Lectio Divina ~ NOVEMBER 06, 2015 zenit.org

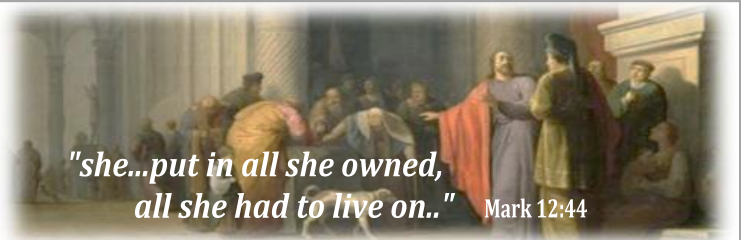

The Gospel that the liturgy has chosen for this Sunday presents two scenes of life that are actual even today and that invite us to examine our consciences about the way we Christians should be: humble and devout. Jesus even today teaches us what in the Temple of Jerusalem he had taught to his disciples, "Beware of the scribes who like to walk around in long robes, and like respectful greetings in the market places, and chief seats in the synagogues and places of honor at banquets, who devour widows' houses, and for appearance's sake offer long prayers; these will receive greater condemnation." (Mark 12: 38-40)

The purpose of the first scene in which Christ speaks of the scribes is to denounce some wrong ways of doing, which can be done by any religious man or woman in every time period. Such people show first of all because of their vain attitudes, a defect that would make us smile but that is unfortunately always current.

The scribes wear sophisticated clothes and claim deference and reverence. But the worst thing is that they have introduced deception into their lives ("who devour widows' houses, and for appearance's sake offer long prayers" v.40). Separating the worship of God from justice is a double deception: they pray to God and hurt the poor. A deception even worse is to deceive even themselves in believing to love God and the neighbor, and instead loving only themselves. The moral authority they possess, the doctrine they know, the religious practices they do, all is used by them to put themselves on the spot, and everything is exploited to their advantage.

It is important to note that the purpose of the Redeemer is not just to invite to humility, denouncing the arrogance and the hypocrisy of the scribes, because after denouncing the scribes as false and misleading teachers, Jesus indicates a poor widow as an example of a true teacher, who teaches to give "all she owned, all she had to live on" (v.44). In this way, all can understand the great example of Christ, who gave himself to the point of dying for us to give us life.

The scene takes place in the courtyard of the temple of Jerusalem, where also the women were admitted. In this courtyard there were thirteen baskets into which the offerings were thrown. It was a gesture made in

"she...put in all she owned, all she had to live on.." Mark 12:44

front of a priest of the Temple, who verified the authenticity of the coins and declared aloud the amount to the crowd that attended this "show." Even Jesus, High Priest of the New Testament, is sitting in front of these thirteen baskets but does not praise the generous donations of which the priest had announced the entity.

The Son of God does not look at appearances, because God looks at the heart and praises a widow who offers a few coins. This poor woman who has no one and who is less than anyone, has such faith in God that she offers to Him a small amount that is all that she has.

The gesture of the woman is not spectacular, but it is a genuine practice of mercy that Jesus recognizes and indicates as authentic gesture because it is sure, right, orderly, devout, and humble, in one word - total. Everything that this poor widow owns, and that she offers, reminds us of the extent of the love of Christ - complete and total, lacking in nothing. True love is to give everything, without calculation, without self-interest, without measure as in this case and as it is always done by the Lord.

This gesture of genuine and total devotion is "used" by the Magisterium of Jesus to teach that His way of measuring the world is not with the criterion of the amount - but with the heart. In the eyes of the one who looks at the heart, the amount is only appearance.

The important thing is to give wholeheartedly; to love Him with all our heart, with all our soul, with all our being. And only YOU and Jesus ultimately know whether He has your whole heart or not.

Charity is not measured in weight or time. The gift that has "weight" for Christ is what we do by giving ourselves to Him "with total abandon and loving trust" ~ St. Mother Theresa of Calcutta. One can give his life, as St. Paul says, but if he does not have love in his heart and is generous only to feel praised, to feel good...it is better to forget it. We can give rich offerings to the Church and to the poor, but if our heart is not in God, those goods are nothing more than dust.

SACRAMENTS

Baptism

We are excited to welcome your child into our faith community! ALL Parents and Godparents are required to attend a Baptism Class prior to scheduling a Baptism. The next class is on Saturday, Nov. 24th, 10:00am at Good Shepherd Church. Please contact the Parish Office for the next class date.

Marriage

Couples wishing to marry need to meet with one of our priests a minimum of 4 months prior to the wedding date, in order to complete the proper marriage preparation course requirements before a wedding can be celebrated.

Were you Married outside the Catholic Church?

Catholics who exchange vows in the presence of ministers from other religious traditions or civil officials are not considered validly married in the eyes of the Catholic Church. Regardless of what happened in the past, the Church invites you to bring new meaning to your lives by embracing the vocation of marriage and dedicating your family's mission to sharing God's love. Please make an appointment with one of our priests to discuss having your marriage convalidated, or "blessed".

Hospital / Care Home Communion Visits

Please remember to let the Parish Office know whenever you or a loved one is hospitalized or moves into a care home in our community. The Parish has a dedicated group of people who will bring Holy Communion weekly to you or yours.

Sacrament of the Sick or Anointing is administered both to the dying and to those who are gravely ill or are about to undergo a serious operation, for the recovery of health and for spiritual strength. Please contact the Parish Office to arrange.

Prayer Requests

Please pray for:

Nancy Murchison, Mark Heeler, Rachele Beaver, Janice Thorsen, Walter Butula, Ray Wittrock, Mia Tennant, Sarah Philibert, Bernd Firnung, Colleen Hopwood, Isla Ufford, Nikolas Fleming, Juliette Jacks, Sheetal Basra, Davinder Munday, Chuck Lafaive, Marie Geiger, Dermot Dunne, Ken LaHaie, Magdalena Coombs, Luka Volentier, Lynn Carruth, Leslie Jones, Tracey Antchak, Barbara Demers, Charlotte Sears, Alice Anderson, Van Huguet, Catherine Dempsey, Andrea Egan, Catharina Noble, Marian Nadelko, Derek Ridsdale, Graham Shore, Fran Caparo, Pat Flickinger, Sophie Cosgrave, Dan Hof, Joanna Boomars, Joyce Henderson, and Bernadette Deeley.

Restorative Justice Week

will be held in Canada & throughout the world from

November 18 - 25, 2018.

Restorative justice is a approach to justice that emphasizes healing in victims, meaningful accountability of offenders and the involvement of citizens in creating healthier, safer communities. As much as possible, restorative justice involves the victim, the offender and the community in a process that attempts to address the harm that results from crime. People of faith play an important role in supporting R.J. both within their particular faith community and in the wider human network.

Please pray for the victims and offenders and all those who minister to them.

Cards and Calendars for Prisoners

CCJS is once again collecting blank/unused 2019 calendars and Christmas cards.

Calendars may be wall, desk or appointment calendars that are of a modest theme and must not have any metal spiral binding.

Christmas cards must not have any glitter, sparkles, stickers, glued-on decorations or overlays. No foil or foil-lined envelopes. Embossed colour is acceptable.

Please drop off your donations in the Prison Ministry box located in the welcoming area of Good Shepherd Church.

Thank you!

Star of the Sea School

Last Sunday, 42 students from our school and PREP preparing to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation along with 6 adult chaperones, took part in the 15th Annual Spirit Day hosted by the Office of Youth & Young Adults Ministry of the Archdiocese of Vancouver. This event helps our young people encounter the love of Christ, gets them excited about receiving the Sacrament of Confirmation, and awakens the Holy Spirit in young and old alike! The day included sessions, testimonies, games, music, skits, prayer, food and Mass.

This year's theme: "THE GREATEST COMMANDMENT: LOVE IN ACTION"

R.C. wrote, "Spirit Day was a blast! I got to hang out with my friends and I got to know God better. I sang, danced and spoke the prayers about God with my friends. After Spirit Day, I felt I was closer with God and knew him better. I also felt ready for Confirmation. Spirit Day was one of the best days of my life."

D.D. wrote, "My experience at Spirit Day was life changing. The band was great, and they taught us that singing Catholic songs was like praising Jesus. The two jugglers helped us all really enjoy the teachings of God. They showed us that the Bible wasn't just a bunch of readings, but a book of life...if we follow what it says, we will have eternal life. I am so glad I joined the grade 7 students going to Spirit Day!"

Upcoming Outdoor Ed FUNRAISERS

Advent Candles lovingly handmade by our Grade 6 students from the finest waffled beeswax will be available for purchase at all the weekend Masses at Good Shepherd Church Saturday, Nov 24th and Sunday, Nov 25th.
