A special thank you to all who embrace Stewardship

"Stewardship reminds us to count our blessings, acknowledge God's gifts to us, and express thanks to the Lord with an intentional, planned, proportionate giving of our time, talent, and treasure. You are just one person but you are very important to God and to God's work. Give until your heart knows that you have done something for God."

31st Sunday in Ordinary Time, Nov. 4th $15,383

"For everything is from you, and we only give you what we have already received from you." (1Chr 29:14)

Join us for coffee and doughnuts after our Sunday Masses and support our Parish Ministries.

Thank you!

From the Pastor's Desk

Here is a poem I like from Denise Levertov, an English born poet who converted to Catholicism in mid-life.

Primary Wonder

Days pass when I forget the mystery.

Problems insoluble and problems offering their own ignored solutions jostle for my attention, they crowd its antechamber along with a host of diversions, my courtiers, wearing their colored clothes; cap and bells.

*And then once more the quiet mystery is present to me,
the throng's clamor recedes: the mystery that there is anything, anything at all, let alone cosmos, joy, memory, everything, rather than void: and that, O Lord, Creator, Hallowed One, You still, hour by hour sustain it.*

-Fr. Jay

Be a Trusted Resource if a Child Discloses Abuse

Parents are in a unique position to know about not only their own children, but their children's friends. If you are a trusted parent, your child's friend may come to you with secrets. What do you do if a child tells you about abuse? As an adult, it's critical that you remain calm, and don't overreact. Child victims are often frightened and confused, and your confusion and anger does not help their situation. Your concern and support, however, will affirm the child in important ways and can help begin the healing process for a child victim who has suffered at the hands of a predator.

To learn more about steps to take if a child tells you about abuse, email jvienna@la-archdiocese.org.

Bringing God's Word Home
 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time Nov. 18, 2018

Gospel: Mk 13: 24-32

Jesus said to his disciples: "In those days after that tribulation the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light, and the stars will be falling from the sky, and the powers in the heavens will be shaken. "And then they will see 'the Son of Man coming in the clouds' with great power and glory, and then he will send out the angels and gather his elect from the four winds, from the end of the earth to the end of the sky. "Learn a lesson from the fig tree. When its branch becomes tender and sprouts leaves, you know that summer is near. In the same way, when you see these things happening, know that he is near, at the gates. Amen, I say to you, this generation will not pass away until all these things have taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. "But of that day or hour, no one knows, neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father."

Food for the Spirit—Reflection

1. Do I try to live as if today were the last day of my life?
2. How do the words and example of Jesus guide my life?

Mensaje del Párroco

Ya se acercan las fiestas de la Virgen de Guadalupe. Todos los años hacemos novenarios en casas empezando el 4 de diciembre y terminando todos juntos en la iglesia el día 12 de diciembre.

Buscamos coordinadores para guiar los novenarios. La tarea principal del coordinador es invitar a siete personas, preferiblemente de su vecindario, para recibir a la Virgen en las noches del 5 hasta el 11 de diciembre. La primera noche empezamos en la casa del coordinador. Nosotros les damos todos los materiales así que no hay que temer no saber cómo hacerlo. Habrá dos reuniones para preparar los coordinadores, lunes, 26 de noviembre a las 7:00 pm.

Esta es una gran oportunidad para compartir nuestra fe, para invitar a otros a orar juntos y ponerse bajo la protección de la virgen. Como parroquia es uno de los eventos más importantes que tenemos durante el año para reunirnos con vecinos en un ambiente de fe y oración. Si está usted dispuesto a trabajar en esto favor de darnos su nombre después de misa. Gracias!

A prayer for Remembrance Sunday

O Lord, our maker and our strength, from whose love in Christ we can never be parted either by death or defeat: May our remembrance this day deepen our sorrow for the loss and wastes of war, make us more grateful to those who courageously gave their lives to defend this land and commonwealth; and may all who bear the scars and memories of conflicts, past and present, know your healing love for the sake of Jesus Christ, the Prince of Peace. Amen.

From the Archives: Commemorating the 100th anniversary of Armistice Day, which marked the end of World War I

By SCOTT HARRISON
NOV 02, 2018 | 1:00 AM

Nov. 11, 1918: Members of the 89th Infantry Division's 353rd Regiment, Company A, celebrate the end of World War I on church steps in Stenay, France.

One hundred years ago, on Nov. 11, 1918, World War I ended. The fighting ended at 11 a.m. Paris time, “the eleventh hour on the 11th day of the 11th month.”

The armistice was agreed upon at 5 a.m. on Nov. 11. While news spread quickly, fighting continued until 11 a.m. Army Pvt. Henry Gunther of the 79th Division was killed at 10:59 a.m., a minute before the Armistice took effect. He was the last American killed in World War I.

As many as 4.7 million Americans served in the military during World War I. About 116,000 Americans died and 204,000 were wounded.

Armistice Day became a national holiday in 1919. In 1954, Armistice Day was rededicated as Veterans Day to honor all American veterans.
