Second Sunday of Advent

AWAITING THE SALVATION OF GOD

The world does not seem big enough to contain the jubilation of the first reading. In the Gospel reading, the Roman empire isn't big enough, either. The great powers of Rome are named and made to stand waiting for the arrival of God's salvation. And we find Paul meditating joyfully on what really matters.

According to Baruch, the city of Jerusalem is like a person standing on tiptoe looking for God's salvation, which is coming from the east. Those who were led away on foot, heads down, now come back, a proud people. Why, the very way is smoothed out. The path is lined with fragrant, lush trees.

It can't get any better than this, can it? Well, yes, it can. For a voice calls out in the desert. Here is the beginning of the salvation of God.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading - Take off your robe of mourning and misery; put on the splendor of glory from God (Baruch 5:1-9).

Psalm - The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy (Psalm 126).

Second Reading - I am confident that the one who began a good work in you will continue to complete it until the day of Christ Jesus (Philippians 1:4-6, 8-11).

Gospel - The winding roads shall be made straight, and the rough ways made smooth (Luke 3:1-6).

St. Dominic Savio

He is the patron saint of our Parish. He is a saint at nearly 15 years of age. He was educated by St. John Bosco (a.k.a. Don Bosco) at the Oratory of St. Francis de Sales.

For St. Dominic Savio, holiness consists of always being cheerful and of doing one's ordinary duties, extraordinarily well. His Feast Day is on May 6.

Segundo Domingo de Adviento

A LA ESPERA DE LA SALVACIÓN DE DIOS

El mundo no parece tan grande como para contener el alborozo que causa la primera lectura. En la lectura del Evangelio, el Imperio Romano tampoco es lo suficientemente grande. Los grandes poderes de Roma se designan y se hacen esperar por la salvación de Dios. Y encontramos a Pablo que medita gozosamente en lo que importa, en lo que realmente cuenta.

De acuerdo con Baruc, la ciudad de Jerusalén es como una persona que en puntillas espera la salvación de Dios, que viene del Este. Los que fueron llevados a pie, con la cabeza gacha, regresan ahora orgullosos. Todo el camino está pavimentado. Al lado del camino hay árboles fragantes y frondosos.

No puede haber algo mejor que eso, ¿no es así? Bueno, sí puede haber algo mejor. Porque una voz grita en el desierto. Aquí comienza la salvación de Dios.

Pope at Mass: Advent is A Time of Pacification

“If we all did only that — not slander others — peace would advance,” said Pope Francis during the Mass he celebrated this December 4, 2018, in the chapel of Casa Santa Marta in the Vatican.

In his homily, reported by “Vatican News,” the Holy Father reflected on the First Reading (Isaiah 11:1-10), who talks about the reign of the “Prince of Peace.” “The wolf shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid, and the calf and the lion and the fatling together, and a little child shall lead them.”

The Season of Advent, he explained, is “a time to prepare ourselves for the coming of the Prince of Peace. It’s a time to be pacified”: first of all, to be at peace with ourselves, to pacify our soul.” “If we are often not at peace,” but “in anxiety,” “in anguish, without hope. . . .” And the Pontiff asked: “how is your soul today? Is it in peace?”

Then, to be “architects of peace,” it’s necessary to “pacify oneself.” “There is so much sadness in families, so many quarrels, so many small wars, so much disunion sometimes” or “walls that separate.”

In fine, it’s necessary to pacify the world where “there are more wars than peace . . . there are so many wars, <there is> so much disunion, so much hatred, so much abuse. There is no peace.” “What do I do to aid peace in the world?” “But the word is too far, Father.” “But what do I do to aid peace in my neighborhood, in my school, in my place of work? Do you always find an excuse to begin to war, to hate, to bad-mouth others? It’s to make war! Am I gentle? Do I seek to make bridges? I don’t condemn?”

Pope Francis addressed to all this appeal for pacification, including children. “What do you do at school? When you have a schoolmate that you don’t like, who is a bit vicious or weak, do you harass him or make peace <with him>?. Do you try to make peace? Do you forgive everything?”

“To make peace is somewhat to imitate God when He willed to make peace with us and forgave us; when He sent His Son to make peace, to be the Prince of Peace,” he continued.

The Pontiff also answered some objections. “Someone might say: ‘But, Father, I haven’t studied how to make peace, I’m not a cultured person, I don’t know how to do it, I’m young.’ Jesus gives us, in the Gospel, the attitude to have: ‘Father, Lord of Heaven and earth, I proclaim your praise: what you have hidden from the wise and the learned, You have revealed to little ones.’ You haven’t studied, you’re not wise . . . Make yourself little, make yourself humble, make yourself a servant of others. Make yourself little and the Lord will give you the capacity to understand how to make peace and the strength to do it.”

“And every time we see that there is a possibility of a small war, at home, in one’s heart or at school or work, it’s necessary to stop and make peace,” concluded the Holy Father. Never, never wound another — never; . . . don’t bad-mouth others, don’t fire the first cannon shot. If we all did only that — not slander others — peace would advance. May the Lord prepare our heart for the Birth of the Prince of Peace . . . let us do everything, let us do our part to pacify: to pacify our heart, our soul, to pacify our family, our school, our neighborhood, our place of work. <Let us be> men and women of peace,” he pleaded.

YOUTH IN ACTION

Youth Ministry and Thanksgiving!

By Janelle Siqueiros

At St. Dominic Savio Church, there are many groups that make this church different from the rest. One of these groups is our Monday Youth Group. Our Youth Group provides a second home for many teenagers, which also engages them to learn more about themselves and Jesus Christ. Every Monday there is a new topic presented to the youth that challenges them mentally and allows them to think through God’s teachings.

Recently, to get into the holiday season, we had our youth create a turkey in which each feather corresponded to something they were grateful for in their life. As they dug further into the topic, they realized magnificent things that God was able to provide for them, and it truly shows how the little things really matter and, so often, go unnoticed. We capped our celebration with a Thanksgiving Potluck three Mondays ago, wherein we thanked God for the things He has given us.

As a teenager that has been coming to these youth meetings, I can personally say that these meetings have truly shown me the value of life and why God has made the way things are for me. I know that through Him, I can do all things. These meetings are also very fun and everyone is welcoming, making this place have a homely and uplifting sensation.

Lastly, we encourage any teenagers interested in learning more about themselves and their spiritual life to come join us every Monday 7 pm at the Youth Center.

PROTECTING OUR CHILDREN

Did you know?

It's the Christmas season, which means children around the archdiocese will be lining up for a picture with Santa and a chance to tell him what they hope to find under their trees this year. The Santa visit is a fun holiday tradition, but it's not a time when parents can let their guard down. Santa and his helpers are usually volunteers and may not have gone through screenings or tests to ensure your child's safety, so it's up to you. Keep an eye on anything happening while your child visits with Santa. Never step away from the action, even for a moment, and don't allow your children to be led away to another room. For a copy of the complete VIRTUS® article, "Safety for Children AND Santa's Helpers," visit <http://www.la-archdiocese.org/org/protecting/Pages/VIRTUS-Current-Online-Articles.aspx>.

¿Sabia Que?

Es la temporada de Navidad, lo que significa que los niños de la arquidiócesis se prepararán para una foto con Santa y la oportunidad de decirle lo que esperan encontrar debajo de sus árboles este año. Esta es una tradición navideña divertida, pero aun así no es un momento para que los padres de familia bajen la guardia. Santa y sus ayudantes por lo regular son voluntarios, y es posible que no hayan pasado por exámenes de detección o pruebas para garantizar la seguridad de su hijo/a, por lo que ésta depende de usted. Vigile cualquier cosa que suceda mientras su hijo visita a Santa. Nunca se aleje del lugar de la acción, ni siquiera por un momento, y no permita que sus hijos sean llevados a otra habitación solos. Para obtener una copia del artículo completo de VIRTUS®, "Safety for Children AND Santa's Helpers" (Seguridad para los niños y los ayudantes de Santa), visite <http://www.la-archdiocese.org/org/protecting/Pages/VIRTUS-Current-Online-Articles.aspx>.
